VOLUME XIV. MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL, WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 24, 1857. NEW SERIES.

THE DAILY SENTINEL.

RUFUS KING & WM. H. WATSON, PROPRIETORS.
Under the Name and Firm of Rufus King & Co.

MILWAUKEE:

Wednesday Morning, June 24.

Arrival of the Persia.

The Persia brings Liverpool dates to the 13th. The news is not of great importance. Successful experiments had been made with the completed half of the ocean telegraph cable. The bill to remove the disability of Jews to serve in Parliament is likely to pass. The details of the treaty with Persia are received.

Breadstuffs had improved; wheat closing at an advance of 2a3d. Corn 6dals higher.

A Dissatisfied Organ.

It is with much sorrow that we notice that our cotemporary, the News, the Hunker—Pro-slavery—Fugitive Law—Administration Organ in this city, is much dissatisfied with the result of the late Convention of friends of Freedom and State Rights in this city. Its wounded feelings are expressed day after day in long, labored articles on the subject. No single feature of the Convention, from the call to the final adjournment, meets with its approval. There were not people enough present—and those present were not of the right sort—and there were some colored people present—and they were not sent around with the hat—and part of the audience consisted of ladies—and the editor of the News did not see one of the editors of the Sentinel there—and the other editor of the Sentinel did not stay long enough—and Mr. Booth was too conspicuous—and so on, to the end of a chapter of miseries.

We repeat the expression of our regret that things did not move on in a satisfactory method to our Hunker cotemporaries; but the fact is, so far as we are aware, the committee of arrangements, if there was one, failed entirely to appreciate the anxiety of the News about the conduct of the Convention. Probably they did not think it likely that any effort on their part would satisfy the conductors of that paper, which would feel itself bound by party fealty, and subservience to the powers that be, to denounce the Convention in any event, even if the Postmaster had been furnished with an easy chair on the stage, and allowed to substitute for the resolutions a set of his own, drafted and advocated by him when a free Soiler a few short years since.

There is one consolation left to us, however, and that is, that the Convention and its results were highly satisfactory to those who called, and participated in it, and we shall have to try and get along without the approval of the News or its masters.

Resigned.

The members of the council of Leavenworth, elected on the day the brave and gallant Phillips was murdered in his own house, have resigned. They say they are satisfied they don't represent the sentiments of the people of that city. The Mayor has ordered a special election, when it is confidently anticipated that the Republicans will sweep the board and fill every vacant seat.

A majority of the resigning members belong to the Walker faction, and finding the Stringfellow gang so much in the ascendant in their party, threw up their offices in disgust.

The above, which we find in the Chicago Tribune, is another evidence of the war now going in Kansas between the regular, out and out, Border Ruffian party, and the new Walker democratic party, which, for the sake of political ascendancy, is endeavoring to build itself up by flattering both sides. The Walker party care for nothing but power and the spoils, and want the Free State men to come in and help it, caring nothing, the while, whether Freedom or Slavery is established. Hence the Free State men repudiate it. The Border Ruffian party, on the other hand, is disgusted that Walker does not declare himself openly on its side, and in favor of slavery. The strength of the Walker party, which blows neither hot nor cold, is seen in the vote cast by in it at the Convention election, as mentioned in another article which we publish today.

The Free State men have acted wisely in holding to their own organization thus far. When they have an opportunity to cast a fair vote, they will show their strength, and overthrow both of the democratic factions.

The Scalper Acquitted.

Fagitt, the wretch who last summer murdered and scalped the cripple Hoppe, on the Lawrence road near Leavenworth, has been tried before Judge Lecompte and acquitted. The Jury was packed by the Bogus Sheriff, who put on it eleven Ruffians and one Free State man. The latter held out against the eleven for 24 hours, and then gave in, for fear that his house might be burnt by the Ruffians, out of revenge.

There is no law for a Free State man, dead or living, in Kansas, while the "National Democracy" bear rule.

Voyage abandoned.—The Sarnia, Canada, Observer says in relation to the bark Andrew Stevens, which is in that port;

We noticed in several papers about the opening of navigation, that this vessel would load grain at Chicago, for Liverpool direct; but we now understand, that in consequence of some difficulty in procuring a cargo, the voyage has been abandoned for the present. The Captain of the Stevens found freights so scarce and unremunerative in Chicago, that he left for this port light, and is now endeavoring to procure a cargo of staves.—Even this description of freight is quite scarce, and prices low, the present season. Vessels find it almost impossible to earn current expenses, it is expected that many of them will have to be laid up until after harvest.

Six Murderers Hung.—On Friday last six murderers paid the penalty of the law for their crimes, three in Illinois, and three in St. Louis, viz: William Jackson, in Chicago, George W. Sharpe and John Johnson, in Edwardsville, and Jacob Neuschlue, Israel Shoultz and W. La Point, in St. Louis.

Robert Sharpe, who was sentenced to be hanged at the same time in Edwardsville, had his sentence commuted to imprisonment for life, by the Governor, on account of his extreme youth.

U. S. Treasury.—The Washington Intelligencer, of Wednesday, June 17th, says:

"The surplus in the Treasury, by returns made up on Monday last, was $21,544,174 83, showing a decrease on the proceeding week of $780,809 81. The receipts of the week were $604,691.—The very great falling off in the receipts is caused by the entry of merchandize in bond, for the purpose of taking advantage of the reduced rates payable after the 30th of June."

Convicted for Murder.—At the late term of the Circuit Court of Waukesha County, Francis Stephens was tried and convicted for the murder of John W. Craft, on the 19th of January, last, in the town of Brookfield. The trial lasted three days, the jury being out but two hours. The prisoner is a young man of only 22 years of age, formerly from Rhode Island.

Connecticut Common Schools.—According to the annual report of the Connecticut Superintendent of Common Schools, just submitted to the Legislature of that State, there are in Connecticut 1625 school districts, and 100,545 school children. During the year 40 new school houses were erected; 450 are reported in good condition, and 400 in a very bad way.

Heavy Life Insurance.—Joseph S. Taylor, the late Street Commissioner of New York city, had a life insurance of $40,000, distributed among the following offices:

United States, $10,000; Mutual, $10,000; New England, $10,000; Manhattan, $5,000; American Mutual, $5,000.

The Mighty West.—The scream of the steamer's whistle is now heard twenty seven hundred miles above St. Louis, in the upper waters of the Missouri and Yellow Stone.

The California Mail Route.

The Postmaster General is working day and night examining the various routes for carrying the overland mail to California. From reports recently submitted and now before the Postmaster General, the northern and even middle routes are not considered practicable for mail purposes.

A decision, I understand, will be made this week, and the northern route will be selected, starting from Memphis or Vicksburg.—Telegraph.

The milk in that cocoa-nut is easy to account for. It is not to be supposed that a Postmaster General from Tennessee could see any practicability in a route north of Memphis, any more than the Southern and doughface statesmen generally can see any authority in the Constitution for harbor improvements on the western lakes.

Unconstitutional Laws.—The following letter, purporting to have been sent by Collector Redfield, of New York, to the President of the U. S., is a very fair bit at the proceedings of Mayor Wood and his backers, in undertaking to decide upon the constitutionality of the Police Laws:

"New York, June 14.

"To the President—Sir:—The late instructions to the Treasury Department, requiring me to be vigilant in the execution of the Tariff act of 1846, with the amendments of the late session, have induced me to re-examine the legislation of Congress upon the subject—and I have come to the conclusion that these acts are unconstitutional. You are aware that my office requires me to obey the Constitution of the United States, as well as the laws of Congress. Of course, if those laws are in violation of the Constitution, I must obey the Constitution and disregard the laws. Now, I am perfectly satisfied that the tariff acts of 1846, and amendments, are a tariff for protection and not of revenue—and that they violate the Constitution of the United States, which permits Congress simply to raise revenue, not to protect one branch of industry at the expense of another. Under these circumstances, I have but one course to pursue, and that is to disregard the Tariff, and to refuse to execute the Tariff laws until they are declared to be constitutional by the Supreme Court of the United States. It is proper to say that the judgments of the District or of the Circuit Court of the United States will not be sufficient to remove my constitutional scruples or swerve me from my duty. Nothing short of the decision of the highest Court in the United States will be sufficient. You will please, therefore, to take notice that on the first day of July next, I shall stand by the Constitution and uphold the rights of this locality. No duties will be collected except such as may be necessary to pay the salaries of myself and the faithful band of officers who intend to stand by me in this emergency. I am proud to say that the Mayor of New York, who, you are aware, is a master of the constitutional law, approves of this course, and has promised to aid me with the immense force at his command in suppressing the indignation of the merchans, which may naturally be expected.

"Yours, respectfully,
H. J. REDFIELD.

Maj. Gen'l. Sandford.—This admirable officer, through whose firmness and wise management the riot in New York city last week was quelled, is thus described by the Times:

Major General Sandford,—The man of the times—the hero of the hour, is undoubtedly Major General Sandford. He was in the highest degree amusing to observe the chaotic effect which the appearance of this gentleman created everywhere. If the comet of his excellent Majesty King Charles, had walked through the Park with his tail under his arm, he could not have created a more solemn impression. Yet there is nothing terrific in the appearance of the Maj. General.—He is not a giant in size nor an Adonis in beauty; he does not wear a scowl and a long sword, or clank ferocious spurs as he treads the earth. There is not the slightest smell of gun-powder about him, or the mildest suggestion of a bayonet. He is simply a jovial-faced little gentleman, rather thin, and slightly snowed with the advancing honors of age, but straight as a ramrod.—He is, to all appearances, incapable of excitement—a sort of military iceberg, which all civic steamers are glad enough to avoid. The facility with which he found admission to all places yesterday, whether guarded by Mayor's Police or rowdies, was in the highest degree provoking.—Wherever he went, people fell back. He smiled benignantly at the politeness, and trotted away as if his pockets were filled with bon-bons and Sunday School medals. Hundreds followed in his wake, but we are not aware that a single discourteous expression was uttered, even behind his back.

The Times adds that General Sandford won respect from Mayor Wood's rowdies sever, and that they cheered him as he passed through the Park.

The Tornado in Illinois.—On Saturday the 13th, the same day which witnessed the tornadoes in Oswego and Oneida counties in New York, Pana, Christian Co., Ill., was visited by a similar storm, of which a correspondent of the Chicago Tribune gives the following description:

Pana, Christian Co., June 14.

Eds. Tribune.—Our town was visited yesterday afternoon by the most terrific and destructive hail storm ever known in Christian county. It has destroyed almost everything in its course.—It has levelled twenty five houses in our village, and done serious damage to fifty others, mine among them. Many of the houses left standing are rendered worthless, being riven and shattered. Some of the houses have been taken up so clean and precipitated from their foundations, that you could hardly tell where they had stood. Roofs were carried through the air as if they were straws. A number of new stores just completed were torn into fragments, and the wrecks scattered about. The new Presbyterian church was moved some distance, and partially destroyed. The roof of the Illinois Central freight depot was taken off, a large number of cars were hurled by the fury of the wind from the track.—Quite a number of persons were wounded by timbers and pieces of buildings thrown through the air by the tornado, and I have just heard a report that a woman and three children were killed by a falling building. Others may not recover from their injuries.

The storm was accompanied with a deluge of rain and a heavy shower of hailstones. The air was dark when the awful tornado broke upon us; it was a terrific scene while it lasted. The elements howled and roared, buildings were dashed in the path of the storm; timbers, rails, boards, roofs and every moveable article hurled through the air. Strong men stood aghast; women and children screamed with terror.—Many were hurried headlong to the ground, and rolled forward by the merciless element. Some of the more ignorant people supposed the comet was about striking the earth, and was causing all the uproar and devastation. They were awfully frightened, believing as they firmly did, that the last day had come.

The value of property destroyed is variously estimated at from fifty to one hundred thousand dollars.

Great Freshet—Old Black on a High—Destruction of Lumber, &c.—Rise of Water Lots.

Last Saturday and Sunday, during both day and night, we had heavy and frequent showers of rain. On Monday Black River commenced rising, and by night it had attained several feet above its usual level, but it was not thought there would be more than a common freshet.—On Monday afternoon a big jam of logs went sweeping past this place, and with them was a part of Mr. Hall's mill which had been previously carried partly away. During the night the river rose rapidly, probably on an average of a foot an hour! At twelve o'clock the inhabitants of the lower part of the town were aroused by the water approaching and surrounding their dwellings, and a general stampede of the women and children was the result. It was then rising so rapidly that teams that were sent to the lower town for families had to swim the horses coming back. By six o'clock Tuesday morning the water had reached a rise of about nineteen feet, and soon began to fall. This is within four feet of the Great Rise in June, '47, when the water was on a level with the steps of the Shanghai House.

It is impossible yet to tell the extent of the damage. No lives or houses were lost here.—Black River Falls Banner.

Rail Road Rumors.—During the past week, we have had numerous rumors afloat concerning railroad matters, all pointing in the same direction. Among others it has been currently reported that the contracts for the construction of the road to Superior were again let, and also that the termination of the road at Hudson is now certainly determined upon. Probably the latter story may have arisen from the fact, that the approval by the government of the land selection of the Fox and Wisconsin River Improvement Company will make it necessary for the La Crosse company to locate their road as far north as Hudson, in order to obtain any lands at this end of the route. The former story we could not trace to any reliable source.—Hudson Chron.

The Crops.—A farmer informs us that the wheat crop in this county is now looking well, the late growing weather of the past two or three weeks having brought it forward rapidly. He thinks that there will be a much larger yield this year, than for several years past.—Racine Journal.

LINES TO ETTA.

Little Etta, four years old,
Worth her weight in precious gold;
Dearer far than gems can be,
Or the treasures of the sea.

Golden is her hair so bright,
Glancing in the glad sun light;
Like a bird with gleaming crest,
Hasting to its own loved nest.

Eyes of Heaven's richest blue,
Lips of rose-bud's brightest hue;
Other beauties yet untold,
Little darling, four years old.

That her path through life may be,
Guileless as her infancy;
And her way through earthly bowers,
Ever strewed with fairest flowers.

May she early seek and find,
That will make her gentle, kind—
Dearer far to her than gold,
Little kits, four years old.

Later from Kansas.

The Bogus Election—Split among the Ruffians—Walker Denounced.

The Border Ruffians held their Constitutional Convention election in Kansas on Monday, June 15th. The editor of the Leavenworth Times, who arrived here on Saturday evening, furnishes us with some news in relation to it:

The first and most important fact is, that throughout the Territory, the Free State men refused to vote, whether registered or not, with a few scattering exceptions. Only three Free State men are known to have been unprincipled enough to vote in Leavenworth City.

The whole number of votes cast in Leavenworth county were only 600. There are upwards of 4,200 legal voters in that county, 1,837 of whom were "registered."

In the precinct of Leavenworth, out of 1,700 voters, but 215 attended the polls.

All the reports received up to Wednesday morning the 17th inst., went to show that a very light vote had been cast, and that the Free State men had ignored the whole thing. A strong effort was made to get out as large a vote as possible, in order to make a show of strength.

Two Pro-Slavery party in many of the counties was divided into two factions—one headed by Governor Walker, and the other by General Stringfellow. The former is in favor of submitting the Constitution to be framed, to a vote of the whole people for ratification; and the latter insists upon sending it to Congress without the people passing upon it, and, in any event, that none but the "registered" voters shall be allowed a voice, if it be submitted.

This faction generally prevailed over the Walkerites by large majorities in proportion to the vote cast.

In Kickapoo, for instance, there were only 3 votes out of 111 cast for the Walker ticket. In Leavenworth only 30.

At Wyandotte, however, the Walkerites were about 20 majority out of 40 votes cast. This was the only precinct where Walker's friends outnumbered Stringfellow's ruffians, so far as heard from.

There were two polls ordered to be held in Douglas county—one at Lawrence, the other at Tecumseh. No votes were cast in Lawrence, and only about 100 in the other place, of which the Walker ticket received but a very small part.

Walker is in bad odor with the fire-eaters. A committee of them waited upon him next day after his Big Springs speech, where Gen. Lane used him up, and demanded of him to change his policy in regard to submitting the constitution to a full vote of the people; but he insisted upon his position. They told him that the convention we did not sustain him, but would repudiate the pro mises he made in his inaugural and speeches. Walker replied, that if they did, they might count on the whole weight of his opposition and displeasure. The committee of National Democrats sneered at his threats, in a scornful manner, and withdrew. When they got out of doors they bitterly denounced him, as a traitor to the Democracy. He is fast losing caste with the Border Ruffians; he has already been repudiated by the Free State side. Being neither hot nor cold, both parties have spewed him out.—Chicago Tribune.

Red River Items.

The party from Milwaukee who left here some two weeks since, for the Red River, have just returned. To say that they are satisfied far beyond their anticipations, would express too feebly their feelings. Suffice it to say, they leave for home more than ever impressed with the future bright prospects of the country west of St. Cloud. They have located a town which they call "Lapham," in honor of an eminent Geologist of Wisconsin, who accompanied them.—Their point is on the Red River 25 miles east of Breckenridge, at the foot of the rapids, where the river leaves the timber and comes out into the open prairie, distant from St. Cloud about 100 miles. At Lapham there is a water power with a head of 12 feet at least. Over the river they design building a bridge, then a dam, to be followed by mills, in due time. They hope to forward 100 men before the close of navigation to their new town. The party saw fresh Buffalo and Elk tracks some distance this side in abundance. Vegetation is represented to be full as forward as at this point. The soil is equal to the best soil of Wisconsin and Iowa.—Minnesota Advertiser.

Railroad Bridge and Union Depot at Dubuque.

The agents of the Illinois Central and the Dubuque and Pacific Railroads have secured a site for a magnificent Railroad Depot, on the corner of Jones and Iowa streets, and extending through to Dodge street. The companies have pledged themselves to build one worth $100,000, to be similar to that of the great Union Depot at Chicago. The Dubuque and Pacific Railroad Company has permission to run a double track up to that point, and it will be built with all possible dispatch, together with a temporary depot. A splendid Railroad Bridge is also to be built, thus enabling trains on the Illinois Central road to run directly into the great Depot on the Dubuque side of the river.

This movement is one of the most important ever made in this city, and it has caused great excitement among land holders. We are told that real estate has advanced fifty per cent within a few days, in the neighborhood of the contemplated Depot. All property in the lower part of the city must necessarily advance.—Dubuque Times, 18th.

The Steamer Canadian.—The Montreal Argus says:—"We are led to believe that the accounts of the position of the steamer Canadian are more unfavorable than circumstances warrant. Instead of her being in fifteen fathoms water, only one portion of her, the stern, is immersed. The bottom of her bow is fast on the rock, the deck portion of it is out of water at high water mark. On Monday evening, Messrs. Edmonstone, Allan & Co., dispatched Mr. E. Merritt, shipbuilder, of this city, in addition to the Quebec staff employed on the wreck, to proceed on Tuesday evening to visit the place of the wreck. We learn that the master of the cargo has been taken out." Our latest despatch from L'Islet is dated on Tuesday, when the Canadian was still in the same position.

From the Quindaro Chindowan.

From Kansas.

Adjournment of the Free State Legislature—Its Action—Feeling in the Territory—Meeting in Quindaro.

Quindaro, Kansas, June 16.

The following enactments were passed by both branches of the Legislature, on Friday and Saturday, and approved and signed by Governor Robinson:

An act providing for taking the census, and apportioning of the State. It provides for the appointment by the Governor, of five Marshals, who will appoint Deputies through the Territory, and take the census immediately. The apportionment is to be such as to give the Senate not more than twenty members, and the House not more than sixty.

An act for an election on the first Monday in August, to fill such State offices as may be vacant and to elect a Representative to Congress. It also provides for an election annually on the first Monday of August.

An act locating the seat of government at Topeka.

An act establishing a State University at Lawrence.

A joint resolution, memorializing Congress for admission to the Union under the Topeka Constitution—the memorial to be circulated through the Territory, for an expression of opinion upon it.

Both branches of the Legislature adjourned, sine die, at half past 11 o'clock Saturday night.

There was a disposition on the part of the House, to enact laws providing for the incorporation of towns, the organization of counties and townships, etc., to give the Free State Government immediate vitality and force; but the Senate only concurred in the enactments named above.

A general desire seemed to exist in the region south of the Kansas river, to put the State Government into immediate operation; and several towns, including Lawrence, Hyatt and Emporia, petitioned for incorporation. In some of these towns complete squatter organizations already exist.

A unanimous feeling was manifested that whenever Kansas does come into the Union, it must be under the Topeka Constitution.

Though Gov. Walker was in Topeka during nearly all the session of the Legislature, no movement was made to interfere with it.

Conflict of Testimony.

We imagine that our good Surrogate—and there is no public man more highly respected by the Bar and the people—will have his hands full in deciding the pending case involving the alleged marriage between Dr. Burdell and Mrs. Cunningham. Every day shrouds with Egyptian darkness a case already marvellously mysterious. There is no prominent point in the theory of the claimant which is not abundantly sustained by credible and apparently respectable witnesses; there is not a prominent point in the contestants, which, if uncontradicted, would not in ordinary cases be deemed equaly credible. Such a balance of apparently reliable testimony, such a nice equipoise of evidence, has seldom been weighed by English or American Courts; and it will require all the legal acumen and discriminating common sense of Mr. Bradford to come to a safe and rational judgement.

On the one hand it is positively sworn that Dr. Burdell was married on the 28th of October; on the other hand, it is equally certain that the Doctor was in the country at the precise time. The Rev. Mr. Marvine swears with positiveness as to his identity; it is proved by several witnesses that, at the inquest, the Rev. clergyman was in a miserable and impotent state of doubt as to wether he had joined Eckel or Burdell. Augusta swears positively to being a witness of the marriage; and yet repeatedly contradicts herself in material points.

On the evening of the marriage it would appear that Eckel was with Mrs. Cunningham on a mysterious visit to a corset maker; on the same evening a complete alibi of Eckel is proven from 7 to 11 o'clock. One witness swears that Burdell acknowledged his engagement with Mrs. Cunningham; another that he had associated with round oaths that he would never marry; one, that he loved; another that he violently detested "the widow;" one, that he violently ejected her from his room; another represents him as sitting all night by her sick bed, and asserting that "she is the dearest woman he ever knew."

At the very moment he speaks of her to one witness as his wife, whose signature is necessary to the conveyance of certain real estate, he is, according to other testimony, endeavoring to eject her from his house as a disagreeable and dangerous tenant. He loves and he hates; he scorns with silly fondness; he swears with demoniac hate; he is in New York, and he is out of New York; he is in the city, in Brooklyn, in Saratoga, in Herkimer, simultaneously; he hates Mrs. Cunningham at the very moment he is, marrying her; protests love and swears on a breath; and passes his honeymoon in writing letters about the "old lead," whom, according to other testimony, he has just led to the altar.

Of course there is false swearing in all this not a little perjury, but not so much as the public imagine. People are easily mistaken about dates and facts and identities; and here is the great difficulty the Surrogate has to encounter. To reconcile conflicting evidence, to harmonize a mass of contradictory testimony, to build up an orderly and reliable theory out of a chaos of miscellaneous facts—this requires the highest powers of the human intellect. The Surrogate has a mammoth task before him, but we believe he will perform it well.—N. Y. Mirror.

The End of the U. S. Bank.

Last week all the old books, papers, drafts, checks, letters, etc., that had been preserved on file as vouchers, in the long course of the immense business of the U. S. Bank, were sold in a heap, in Philadelphia, and purchased by a paper maker, to be re-ground and manufactured into new stock. The whole mess weighed over forty tons. Ten tons of this vast amount is of correspondence, autograph letters of the first statesmen, politicians and financial men of this and other countries. Drafts upon the Rothschilds for hundreds of thousands of dollars, certificates of stock transferred to the leading bankers in Europe, checks and drafts from Clay, Webster, Adams, Calhoun, Houston, Crockett, Cass, &c., all are scattered, ready for the important transformation into clean, unsullied white paper. This huge mass of books and paper strikes the visitor with astonishment.

A faint idea may be formed of the colossal character of the institution which at one time occupied so important a part in the history of the country. What a vast storehouse these papers would be for individual histories—and, perchance, they would illustrate some unexplained passages in the history of the political parties of the day.

Later From Hayti.—By a recent arrival we have received Haytian papers to May 23. At the session of the Senate May 5th, a proposition was brought forward by Senator Labonte, with a view of aiding the efforts of the Abolitionists in procuring the emancipation of the African race, that an article should be added to the Tariff act, making a discrimination between sugar refined by free labor and slave labor, by means of a certificate, which the importer must obtain from the Haytian Consul or Agent, residing in the place where the sugar was shipped. Sugar made by slave labor is to be subjected to a duty four times as large as that made by free labor; and sugar arriving without the consular certificate is to be presumed to have been made by slave labor.—The act to take effect in three months after its passage. The proposition was supported by several Senators, and was subsequently laid upon the table and ordered to be printed.—N. Y. Tribune.

The Season.—We are having fine showers of rain, which is bringing forward the crops of all kinds rapidly. Wheat, both fall and spring, is looking exceedingly well. It is now up with the usual season, and will be ready for harvesting at the ordinary time. Oats and potatoes are also in a forward state. Corn, on low lands, looks rather sickly, having had too much wet weather.—Mansion Star.

Marine Intelligence.

From Lake Superior City.—The Gen. Taylor, Captain Eyder, from Ontonagon and intermediate ports, arrived here at 1 o'clock to-day, with 140 tons copper for the Detroit Smelting Works, and 35 tons for J. G. Hussey, Cleveland; also 40 tons of iron from Marquette. Sixty tons of the copper is from the Cliff Mine; 135 tons were taken on at Ontonagon, and 30 tons at Portage Lake. Mr. Cleveland, the Clerk, informs us that the mining prospects were never better. Business is very brisk in all ports visited. She left Ontonagon on the 18th.

The Gen. Taylor met the Mineral Rock at the Sault.—Detroit Tribune 20th.

☞ The schooner Orion, of Sackett's Harbor, put into port yesterday, leaking very badly, from the casing around her rudder not being properly fixed. She was repaired and left for Racine.—1b.

☞ The Forest Queen came down to-day from Saginaw. Capt. Goodrich informs us that the steamer Michigan arrived yesterday at Point aux Barques, with a load of brick for the light house at that place, from Milwaukee.—1b.

The following vessels have passed this port since 8 P. M. yesterday:

Bound Up—Props. Neptune, Mt. Vernon, Edith—barques Mary Stockton, Illinois—brig G. G. Dechler—schrs. J. K Brown, Curtis Mann, Republican, Cairo.

Bound Down—Prop. Manhattan—brig Caroline—schr. Flying Cloud.—1b.

Off Again.—The Lake Navigation Co's fine new schooner Invincible, was ashore near Pier Marquette, as stated; but we learn she was lightened off by the schooner Circassian, aided by the steam tug Michigan, and she is again on her way to Buffalo.—Chicago Trib.

Collision.—The barque De Soto and schooner Ellen Pike, collided about thirty miles north of Chicago; it was very foggy at the time, and neither vessel saw the other until too late to avoid the collision. The De Soto sprung a leak, but sustained no damage; but the schooner had her fore-rigging, cat heads, bowsprit, and everything forward carried away, and although blowing quite fresh at the time, Captain Hoped managed to work his vessel into port.—1b.

Another Collision.—The propeller Ontonagon and the Lake Navigation Co's schooner North Star, collided on Lake Huron last week. The North Star was bound to Buffalo, loaded with corn; she sank immediately. For further particulars as the newscame by telegraph. The North Star is uninsured.—1b.

BADGER STATE SAFES!

FIRE & BURGLAR PROOF!

THE WIDE EXTENDED and constantly increasing reputation which our safes have acquired, for unequalled durability and finish, warrants us in calling the attention of the public to our increased facilities for manufacturing the same.

The numerous improvements which we have added to our Steam Works, (Nos. 215, 217 and 221 East Water St.) places us beyond the reach of competition in our line of business.

The severe tests which the Badger State Safe has stood both in this city and elsewhere, establishes its proof against fire and water for the protection of valuables.

I have the agency for the sale of Crane's Metallic Burial Casket, an entirely new pattern, which for beauty of style and finish cannot be surpassed. I ask attention to them, as suited to the wants and tastes of a very considerable class of the community, which the style and arrangement of Fisk's case do not meet. This casket permits a view of the earth's body after it is enclosed, the top being composed of a beautiful French plate glass, sufficiently strong to resist any internal or external pressure, and a covering of a beautiful, chaste metallic plate.

The office of the Forest Home Cemetery Company is at my place, where I have the plats of the grounds. I am always ready to accompany patrons to the Cemetery to select lots or places for burial, and can be found at my place of business day or night. Coffin trimmings of all kinds for sale.

HON. ARTHUR MCARTHUR PRESIDING.

Garret Barrey vs. Gilbert Dutcher. Inquest for plaintiff. Damages assessed at $58,00.

Louisa Hill vs. Williams Lee. Trial proceeding.

There were about twenty two other cases on the Calendar, all of which were adjourned.

BODY OF HERMANN UPMANN FOUND.—The body of Hermann Upmann, who it was supposed got drowned at the Cherry street bridge on Saturday night, was found yesterday morning in the bayou, at the foot of Martin street, in the Seventh Ward. Mr. Upmann was last seen late on Saturday night in the Fourth Ward, and it is said that he was then somewhat intoxicated. What led to the supposition that he had fallen through the draw at Cherry street bridge, was from the fact that he was in the habit of going over that bridge at night to see some of his friends who live in that ward. It is thought that he intended going across Cherry street bridge, and mistook Martin for Division street, as he came up from the Fourth Ward, and thus met with this melancholy fate.

He leaves a wife and three children, who are almost helpless, to lament his loss. Mr. Upmann formerly kept a saloon, but of late was in the business of commission broker and agent.

"UNIQUE."—Under this heading the Free Democrat of last evening undertakes to read us a lecture for reprimanding a policeman for what we considered an outrage. We still say that it was a gross outrage, according to the policeman's own testimony in the Police Court, which the Democrat's local neither saw nor heard, and which we did both see and hear. The policeman, stated as we mentioned yesterday, that he saw one of the boys strike the other, and when asked what the other did, he (the policeman) replied "nothing." Both of the boys were arrested and kept in jail until Monday morning, when one was fined, and the other sent about his business. The boys were not fighting in the street, as the Democrat says. If they were, why were they not both tried and fined for being disorderly? One of them was discharged from the police court, as there was no charge brought against him, and the one who arrested him said that the boy did nothing; yet he was kept in jail from Saturday night to Monday morning. We thought that this was wrong, and still think so.

LEAVING THE BRIDGES OPEN AT NIGHT.—When Mr. H. Upmann was first missed, it was supposed that he had walked off the Chestnut Street Bridge (which was left open at night) and thus was drowned. Although this supposition was incorrect, as regards Mr. Upmann, it is never the less true that some unknown man, probably a stranger in our city, was drowned in that way last week. The draw of the bridge had been left open, and no light or barrier put up, to warn passers-by of the danger.—The city, of course, would be liable, in heavy damages, for a life lost, or limbs injured, in consequence of such neglect; and it would be well to make the Bridge-tenders understand their duty and responsibility in the premises.

"AN IMPROVEMENT."—We learn that Mr. Eldred contemplates erecting a magnificent block of stores on the corner of East Water and Wisconsin streets, early next spring. The block is to occupy 90 feet on East Water street, and to be in every respect a first-class building. This will cover a large portion of that very important block, which the City Auction Room, and a host of other miserable shanties, now occupy. The good work once commenced, the example will undoubtedly be followed by other property-owners adjoining Mr. Eldred, and then East Water street will present an unbroken front of elegant brick, stone, and iron buildings, on both sides, from Huron to Wisconsin streets. Success to the enterprise of Mr Eldred.

FOURTH OF JULY.—The arrangements for a grand celebration of the Fourth in our city are making good progress. We hear that the Draymen of the city, mounted on their stout horses, will take part in the procession. We hope that the mechanical trades will also be represented. A few such additions will add greatly to the variety and attractions of the pageant.

FLORAL PROCESSION ON THE FOURTH.—We see that our cotemporaries, the Wisconsin and American, strongly recommend the ladies to get up a floral procession, or pic-nic on the Fourth. This is an excellent idea, and we trust that the ladies will take the hint, and make preparations to get up something new. We are about, undoubtedly, to have a grand celebration, and of course be ladies will cheerfully do their part to honor the glorious day. What think the ladies?

ADULTERY.—A German named Moritz Kurstanel, and a woman named Dorthea Mohr were arrested yesterday by Policemen Foulter and Benaler for living lawfully together. The children of the woman gave information to the police of their mother's conduct, and stated that their father, who was lame and unable to work, had been sent to the poor house through the connivance of his wife and Kurstanel, who was brazing with her. The father has been discharged from the poor house, and has gone home to his children. The others will probably go to Waupun for a short time.

INFORMATION WANTED.—Mrs. WILMOT, recently from Illinois, wishes to learn the residence of her friend, THOMAS ANDERSON, a carpenter by trade, whom she came to this city to visit. She has been unfortunate at Chicago, in having her money stolen from her, and is, on her arrival here, cannot find her friends. She is at the Merchant's Hotel, East Water st.

There is no such name in the new Directory, as we have by examining the sheets, and it is probable that Anderson has left the city. Any information concerning him will be very thankfully received by Mrs. Wilmot.

THE OPENING LAST NIGHT.—Messrs. Baker & Co. have opened their new eating house and restaurant on Main street, last evening, by giving a free supper, to which ample justice was done, by as jovial a crowd as have been congregated together for some time. The ladies (not speaking of the drinkables) were good, the waiters were merry, and the obliging landlords had their hands full in waiting upon their guests. We wish them success, and cheerfully recommend them to the dining public.

DREDGE ARRIVED.—The steam tug G. H. Nutter arrived from Cleveland, yesterday having in tow the dredge boat belonging to Mr. SIMS, who has the contract for dredging out the channel of the river from Walker's Point bridge to Cherry St. Bridge. It is to be hoped that the work on this contract as well as on the one extending from Walker's Pt. Bridge to the mouth of the river, may be pushed with immediately, so that a deep and easy channel may be secured when the fall business commences, and when we are sure to have low water.

RAILROAD IRON ARRIVED.—Since Saturday the following vessels have arrived with cargoes of Railroad iron, as noted:

Ch. Correspondent, Buffalo..... 168 bars
" Cuba, Oswego..... 1745 "
" Kelipse " ..... 1488 "

Of the above, 600 bars is for the Mil. & Miss. R. R. Co., and the balance for the La Crosse & Mil. R R. Co.

THE FISH MARKET—A NUISANCE.—The fish market, at the East end of Spring Street Bridge, is a nuisance that ought to be abated. The residents of the neighborhood have again and again urged the Common Council to prohibit the selling of fish there, but as yet without avail. If our memory is not at fault, there is, or soon used Ordinance on the subject, which, if enforced, would remedy the evil complained of.

WEATHER.—The past few days of fine, pleasant weather has made a marvellous difference in the looks of people that we meet, and the symptoms are now strongly in favor of reasonable summer weather for some time to come.

THE NEW CITY MAP.—Messrs. ERVING, BURDICK & CO. are now prepared to deliver the new map of this city, which was prepared by I. A. Lapham, Esq., for their City Directory, to their subscribers. Copies can be had at the Sentinel counting room.

WEST'S PATENT CEMENT FOR ROOFING.—We would call the particular attention of men who are building, or about to erect buildings, to Messrs. J. V. Chesney & Co's advertisement of the above roofing. It has now been very extensively used all through our city, and its reputation for being the most perfect and reliable article for roofing now in use, is fully established. It has been used on the Newhall House, and nearly all the buildings which have been put up in this city during the past year, and is being more extensively used every day. A host of our wealthiest citizens and business men bear to it many to its superior qualities.

DISCHARGED.—Milton Forbes, arrested in Milwaukee on Saturday, upon a telegraphic dispatch from Capt. Yates, upon a charge of passing a counterfeit $5 bill, was examined before Justice Beatty yesterday, and discharged from custody. Immediately after his discharge, he was arrested by officer Keller on two warrants, one for embezzlement, and the other for obtaining goods under false pretences.—Chicago Tribune of yesterday.

THE FORBES in the same one who passed himself off here for a CHICAGO policeman, and gave his name as PATTERSON. We were misinformed when we stated that he was arrested in this city by a policeman from Chicago.

APPLETON'S TRAVELLERS' GUIDE.—We are indebted to H. KEMPSHALL for the June number of Appleton's Railway Guide. It is a very useful periodical, and invaluable to the travelling public, giving full details of rates, fares, distances, &c., on any Railway and Steamboat route in the United States and Canada. For sale by Kempshall.

SALE OF LARKIN'S ADDITION.—To-day the sale of lots in this addition to the First Ward, just above the dam, takes place, by Messrs. OGDEN & WALL, real estate agents. As we have already stated, the location is one of the first of the new additions about the city, and homesteads may be secured at a low rate.

HARPER FOR JULY.—Kempshall sends us a the July number of Harper's Monthly. "Little Derrit" is at length concluded, and everybody comfortably settled on Fifth Avenue. The illustrated articles are three—the "Ozark Settlements"—the North Carolina sketches, and a chapter about mosses. The number is a very attractive one.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.—Mr. H. K. WHITE advertises in our paper this morning some very desirable property in the Ninth Ward, near the "Cold Spring" House. Read his notice and attend the sale, which comes off on Saturday next.

REAL ESTATE SALES YESTERDAY.—Mr. J. S FILLMORE, Land and Collecting Agent, No. 246 East Water Street, reports the following registered sales of real estate:

Yeaton & Duval's Addition.

THIS NEW Addition to the city of Milwaukee is now perfected; the land platted is a part of the S E ¼ of Section 24, lying upon the Wauwatosa Plank Road, about 2½ miles west of Davidson's Addition—a part of the property known as the "Cold Spring" property, and is now in the ninth ward of the city.

The location of this property is high, commanding good views of portions of the city and the surrounding country. It is healthy, water is abundant and pure; the soil is of the best quality, and is now in good cultivation. It is but a few minutes' walk from the La Crosse and Horicon Depots, and from business generally, and most undoubtedly presents to those who desire a cheap home in a beautiful portion of the city, upon good streets, and in a good neighborhood—advantages that can not be found elsewhere.

On Saturday, June 27th, I shall sell at public auction, upon the premises, a large numbe of lots.

I have adopted the plan of selling for a small amount down, with small monthly payments upon the balance, until the whole is paid, as follows:

1 lot $8 down, and $5 per month till paid for, without interest.
2 lots $19 " " $5 " " "
Interest.
4 lots $13 " " $12 " " "
Interest.
6 lots $25 " " $20 " " "
Interest. Or
1 lot $25 down, balance in 5 equal annual payments, at 7 per cent.
2 lots $40 down,
Interest at 7 per cent.
3 lots $60 down,
Interest at 7 per cent.
5 lots $75 down,
In 1 at 7 per cent.

A contract, which will secure a perfect title) will be executed upon the sale of the lots.

The opportunity here offered to secure a lot, or a number of lots, has never before been presented in Milwaukee, and most certainly brings a title to a homestead within the reach of every one.

You who want a cheap lot, go and examine this property, and attend the sales on Saturday, June 27th.

CITY LAND OFFICE.

THE GREAT SALE of lots in Larkin's Addition comes off at the City Auction Room, corner of East Water Street, on Wednesday morning, June 24th, at 10 o'clock. The terms of sale are very easy—10 per cent down, 15 per cent, in thirty days, balance in 2, 3, 4 and 5 years, with interest at 7 per cent per annum. Larkin's Addition commences on High Street, directly opposite to Murray's Addition and slopes beautifully down to the River, nearly opposite the Rond House of the La Crosse Railroad. You have also a beautiful view of the city.—The soil is very fine and superior water. As for wheather location, there is no part of our city so desirable as the First Ward. Strangers and citizens and all who have money to invest, you cannot, probably, do better with your money than to invest it in L ts in Larkin's Addition. All who have been in the city, now is the time for the sale of purchasing lots while they were cheap. Another fact, every lot offered will be sold—no by bidding will be allowed under any circumstances. So all attend.

KILBOURN CITY.

IN that romantic portion of Columbia County, known as the "Dells," and where the La Crosse R. R. passes over the Wisconsin river, stands Kilbourn City.

The attention of the projectors was first called to the spot by the many natural advantages there presented.—They found a water-power unequalled for any in the State, a fine neighborhood to settle in, which would foot their profits to the Mississippi, a surrounding country fertile and beautiful, and without a monopolized land; everything pointed out this as the spot above all others where a flourishing town could be built with equal taste and liberality they have formed and carried out their plans. The avenues are of unusual width, with the original forest tree standing in double rows throughout their length.—To the La Crosse road they have given sufficient land for the erection of two depots, one for factories, &c., which will be commenced in a short time.

The mechanics employed by this road, and those which must necessarily find occupation in a manufacturing town such as this is destined to be, will form of themselves a large population, while the amount of lumber, &c. manufactured and shipped, will give employment to another large class who will look to it for their supplies on the business men of the place.

The limits of an advertisement prevents our setting forth at length all the inducements offering to settlers in this flourishing place.

On the 7th, 8th and 9th of July we will sell on the ground some of the most valuable lots in the city.

WEST'S

PATENT GALVANIC CEMENT FOR ROOFING!

IT TAKES a better Roof than Tin, at less than half the cost. Those who know it best speak of it in the following to me.

We were present at the disastrous fire in Salina, last fall, and took particular notice of the effect of the fire on "West's Galvanic Cement" Roof's. The composition was fire proof. Burning boards and cinders fell on the roofs, and set fire to nothing. The timbers of the building were burned out, and the roof boards almost entirely consumed, before any fire would break through the roofs.—It will resist fire, there is no other kind of roofing that can do so much, and exceed the most sanguine expectations ever entertained. It is particularly adapted to the manufacture of cornices.

SALOM'S
MERCANTILE COLLEGE!
A Perpetual Ticket for $25!

GENTLEMEN desirous of acquiring a thorough Mercantile Education, are assured that the advantages presented at this institution are unsurpassed.
The Principal takes this opportunity to acknowledge the courtesy of several of the most distinguished Shipping and Jobbing Houses, in the East, who recently allowed him to examine their books, besides explaining many original plans for economizing labor, which, adopted as in some instances after the experience of half a century, may be justly designated the ne plus ultra of the art.
These advantages, granted upon Mr. SALOM'S long practical experience in a variety of Counting Houses, have enabled him to elaborate a novel and valuable series of transactions, introducing all the great heads and ramifications of mercantile routine to be actually developed by the student. A perpetual ticket confers the privilege of instruction in Book-Keeping at all times, as well as tuition in Writing, Mercantile Calculations, Law, Correspondence Forms, &c.
The Surveying and Mathematical department is in progress during the day and evening.

Parents and guardians who desire to see their children strong, active and robust, can judge for themselves, after a few weeks trial, as to the effect of these different exercises upon their health.
The continued patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.
